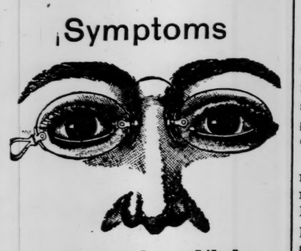
Symptoms



Of Defective Vision

Many persons have the idea that defective vision manifests itself only in a failure or inability to see clearly, but itching, burning, smarting of the lids, dull pains in the eyes or head, even the back of the head, all come from irregularities in the optical construction of the eyes and may be entirely relieved by correctly fitted glasses.

DR. J. T. JOHNSON Guarantees to correct every case that he undertakes. If your eyes are giving annoyance consult him at once.

TWO MEN KILLED

By Lightning During the Storm Yesterday.

During the storm yesterday afternoon lightning struck a barn at John A. Young's nursery farm, two miles east of the city, killing two colored men and badly stunning a third man and a horse. The two dead men are John Younger and Daniel Easle. They had been working in the field and when the threatening clouds came up, unhitched the horse and went to the barn

When the fatal flash came Younger was just outside the barn removing the harness from the horse, while Easle was in the barn, and both fell in their tracks, Younger falling on the horse. Both men died instantly. Easle was near the door and his body was badly scorched and clothes torn. His shoes were torn from his feet.

Jeff Donnell was standing a short distance away and was knocked from his feet. It was thought that the horse was dead, but it revived during the night.

The barn door and facing were shattered to pieces though otherwise the building was not damaged.

OUR NEW ROAD LAW.

The Mecklenburg Law Amended to Fit Guilford County.

An act to amend the Mecklenburg road law and to apply the same to Guilford county, passed its third and final reading in the house. Being a senate bill it that becomes a law and gives our commissioners a better law on the road question.

The Telegram hopes now to see the matter of permanent road improvement move off in good shape. Mecklenburg county is fast becoming the pride of the state on account of her good roads and Guilford with equal advantages cannot afford to lag behind.

Nicaragua Paragraph Modified.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Mar. 2—The conferees on the river and harbor bill have practically agreed. The Nicaragua canal paragraph will be greatly modified. It will appropriate a million dollars for examining all routes under direction of the president. The conferees on the sundry civil bill have partially agreed.

WHICH IS RIGHT?

Washington, Mar. 3—The conferees on the river and harbor bill have reached no agreement and the chances for the bill are dubious. If a disagreeing report is made in the house a motion may be made to concur in all the senate amendments. It is said the house conferees may hold back a report.

They Hold no Prisoners.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Mar. 3—General Otis cables that the insurgents do not hold a single prisoner of war. They have three soldiers in Maloas, picked up in January, who went among them without permission near Cavite. The Americans have captured over fifteen hundred insurgents since February 4th and hold the majority of them as prisoners.

The Bills Signed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Mar. 3—The president has signed public building bills for Anniston, Ala., Annapolis, Md., Columbus, Ga., New Iberia, La., and Winston, N. C., and for enlarging the public building at Macon, Ga.

Mr. Bailey, of Texas, announced today that he will not be a candidate for the democratic leadership in the next congress.

Army Appropriations.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Mar. 3—The senate committee on appropriations has concluded the consideration of the army appropriations. It increases them one million, three hundred and two thousand, making a total of eighty million, three hundred thousand. The increase is for the pay of officers and men Buried Beneath an Avalanche.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Gunnison, Mar. 3—Five men and one woman were buried beneath an avalanche of snow on Gravity Mountain, White Pines yesterday. They were all in a boarding house which was crushed and carried into the gulch.

Washington, Mar. 3—The president has sent Dewey's nomination as admiral to the senate.

PLANNING ANOTHER ATTACK

It Is So Judged by Comparative Inactivity of Insurgonts.

NEW ENTRENCHMENTS SHELLED.

Desultory Fighting During the Night. One Soldier Wounded—The Concord Returned.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, Mar. 3—The comparative inactivity of the insurgents causes the suspicion that they are planning for another general attack. The gunboat Laguna de Bay and Scott's battery successfully shelled the new entrenchments thrown up by the enemy at Guadaloupe last night. There was desultory firing during the night. The First Montana was at the front. One soldier was wounded.

THE CONCORD'S CRUISE.

Manila, Mar. 3—The gunboat Concord has arrived here after a week's cruise on the west coast of Luzon. A schooner loaded with supplies for the rebels was burned at Dagupan. The natives fled and abandoned the town when the gunboat auchored in the bay.

A CASE OF SUICIDE.

Capt. Chadwick Shot Himself—Account of the Sad Affair.

Boston, Mass., Mar. 2—4:20 p. m.—Capt. H. S. Chadwick, of Charlotte, N. C., committed suicide at the Parker House this morning by shooting. The ball entered the right temple and passed out the left. He had been at the hotel since Friday. He was ill when he arrived and has been under the care of a nurse since that time.

A telegram, which read "Continued absence causes much anxiety. Let me know how and when I can see you, "signed "Blanche," was found in his room. He received it two days ago. Blanche is said to be his wife.

A Bostonian named Snelling says the suicide was due directly to ill health. He says Chadwick served as captain in a North Carolina regiment, left the army because of illness, and had not since been well.

He has been in a sanitarium part of the time and came to Boston unknown to his relatives. Usually he communicated with Bostonians with whom he had business, but on this trip did not. —Special to the Charlotte News.

PASSENGERS IN PERIL.

An Express Train Collision on the Pennsylvania Road.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Jersey City, Mar. 3—The Susquehanna and Western express collided this morning with a Pullman train on the elevated tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad. Four passenger coaches were set on fire and five hundred passengers imperilled. Many crowded through the windows, but none of the passengers were seriously injured.

HORRIBLE DEED.

THE BACHOLER GIRLS' FEAST.

The Club Delightfully Entertained by Miss Ruth Porter.

Come to the feast of Miss Porter
Thursday night;
Everything will be jolly, everything
bright;
Never mind the weather if winds do
blow;
Reason will feast and souls will flow;
Twelve "Jolly Bachelor Girls" with ribbons and curl,
Twelve "Jolly Maiden Boys" with hearts to hurl;
On second of March, 8:30 sharp,
Ruth Porter's home is the place for the "lark."

In response to the above invititation the Bachelor Girls and their escorts last night gathered at the home of their hostess and spent one of the most pleasant evenings since the club was organized. After a short while spent in social conversation, and the rendition of a number of choice selections on the piano, by Miss Lizzie Balsley, a delicious and bounteous supper was served and fully enjoyed by those present.

After supper the remainder of the evening was spent at games, the most enjoyable of which was "The Initial Game." In this Miss Bessie Hosier, of New York, was the succesful contestant and carried off the first prize. Mr. Z. V. Taylor captured the booby. The evening was one of rare delight and pleasure and the occasion will be long and pleasantly remembered by the following who were present:

WOULD RATHER HANG

Than Be Confined in The Penitentiary For Life.

News was received here this morning, announcing the fact that Governor Russell had commuted the sentence of Jasper Hinson from that of death to life imprisonment. The details of the killing of James Crawford by Hinson are well remembered by Charlotte people as it created public indignation and at one time it was thought that Hinson would be lynched and it was only owing to the coolness and personal bravery of ex-Sheriff Smith that he was not hanged in front of the courthouse the day of his trial.

A News reporter visited the jail this morning and was the first one to inform him that the governor had, through the efforts of Senator F. I. Osborne, commuted his sentence to life imprisonment. When the reporter informed Hinson of what he supposed would be good news, Hinson threw up his hands and exclaimed, "My God! not that. Tell Osborne not to accept that."

After he had recovered from the effects of the startling news he said:

"I never had a fair trial to start with and now it seems that I am not to have justice from the higher courts. I would rather be dead than to be confined in prison all my life. Yes sir, I want a new and fair trial and if they find me guilty, I am ready to die on the gallows. I certainly would rather hang than to be sent to the penitentiary for life."

Hinson still has hope that the supreme court will grant him a new trial.—Charlotte News.

GOSSIP OVER THE JUDGSHIP

Assured That Ewart's Case Will Go Over.

WHAT WILL THE PRESIDENT DO?

Congressman-Elect Atwater Getting The "Lay of The Land" Before His Term of Office Begins.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, March 3—The assurance that Judge Ewart cannot be confirmed during the next two days, and that his nomination will go over unacted upon, has revived gossip concerning his successor. If the senate does not act upon the nomination favorably within the next twenty-four hours, or if the nomination is rejected by the senate, it is given out on excellent authority that Judge Ewart will not again be appointed. The republican leaders from the state believe that Judge Ewart has an ample opportunity to demonstrate his ability to secure confirmation, which he is unable to secure. Senator Pritchard, it can be stated, unless he should change his mind does not desire the judgeship, and if he should, it is not believed, as stated on a former ocasion, that the president would consent to his leaving the senate chamber, which would give the democrats an additional senator. Senator Pritchard, before the appointment of Ewart was not favorable to his selection, and the appointment was made without his endorsement, though after the name was sent in, the senator worked for confirmation. It cannot be stated whom Senator Pritchard will now ask to have appointed to the bench. There is considerable talk about the capitol that Assistant Attorney General Boyd, who is a member of the national republican committee from North Carolina may become a candidate for the appointment, and may be endorsed by Senator Pritchard. Col. Boyd is an active republican, and in addition has the point in his favor of having been a McKinley man before the nomination of McKinley for the presidency was made at St. Louis. It is stated that the president will this time allow Senator Pritchard to select the man for the judgeship, in the hopes that the man whom he selects may run the gauntlet of the United States Senate better than did the president's personal selection.

The members of the North Carolina delegation in congress are making preparations to leave Washington for their various homes. Most of the delegation will leave Saturday afternoon and night, and it is expected that by Monday morning very few of the delegation will be in Washington.

Congressman-elect Atwater, of the Fourth North Carolina district, is in Washington, being the guest of Representative Stroud. He has been almost a daily attendant at the sessions of the house this week, being shown about, and introduced by Representatives Stroud and Shuford. He will remain in Washington until Saturday night, staying here for the purpose of being present to witness the death of of the 55th congress.

The vote on the resolution declaring General Wheeler and his associates who served during the Spanish war, not entitled to their seats, is pleasing to the friends of the soldier-statesman. Several of the North Carolina delegation on the roll call voted not to consider the report of the judiciary committee. General Wheeler and his fellow members received congratulations from every side of the house. No further attempt will be made to oust them during this session, and future action will depend upon the action taken by the members themselves. It is understood that General Wheeler now intends to resign his commission just before congress reassembles for the next session.

Mr. Henry Roan, of Winston, N. C., is in Washington on a business trip. While in the city he is making his headquarters at the Metropolitan Hotel.

On April 1st, Plymouth, North Carolina, will be raised to a postoffice of the presidential class, and the salary will be $1,000 per year. There are several applicants for the postmastership.

Leonidas N. C. Spruill has been commissioned postmaster at Mackey Ferry, North Carolina.

Senator Pritchard stated tonight that he has not yet given up hopes of Ewart's confirmation, and will make a strong effort when the senate goes into executive session to secure a vote. He believes that if a vote is taken that Ewart will be confirmed.

LOOKING SOUTHWARD.

It has of late been a subject of frequent remark that northern and New England mill men were looking southward. People in the south are opening their eyes to their own possibilities and advantages and are investing their money in manufactures. On this subject we clip the following from a Baltimore special to the Charlotte Observer:

Greater attention than ever is being given in the south to the subject of diversification of industries, paralleling the development and enlargement of operations of those that have been established for years. In the cotton industry a typical fact about the increasing tendency toward advance in operations is the determination of the Merrimac Manufacturing company, of Lowell, Mass., to establish a branch in Alabama, and the additional fact that the company would not consider any location which would not give it room enough and water enough to expand to a plant of 200,000 spindles capacity.

There are other notable examples in Alabama of the appreciation of New England capitalists of the advantages to the textile industry of contiguity to the cotton fields and to the sources of fuel, the labor supplies and other needful things. The establishment of these large mills will have either one of two beneficial results, or both. For example—the establishment some years ago of a $2,000,000 cotton mill in South Carolina has advanced more than $2,000,000 the value of farm lands within a radius of ten miles, and the farmers have found in the community of 5,000 people dependent for a living upon the operations of the mill, an increased market for their products.

The other result to be expected is the growth of other industries around the pioneer. In some communites, as at Greensboro, N. C., with the conception of an industry like the flannel mill, to be equipped with 12,000 spindles and 300 looms, other industries will be found in successful operation, though the opportunities for additional ones will be by no means limited thereby.

AS SPRING APPROACHES.

As the winter season takes its departure and springtime approaches, there are many things that will need the attention of private citizens and sanitary officers. In cities which have a more complete water supply and sewerage equipment than has Greensboro, there are disorders which threaten and endanger the public health, and which often cause much trouble and sickness. These are found in alleys and back lots and in portions of the city where the inhabitants are too careless in the matter of disposing of slops and refuse matter.

This question cannot, with safety, be longer dealt with lightly or carelessly. The city is much larger than it was two years ago, even than one year ago. There were open drains on the streets which, last summer, grew stagnant and assumed a greenish, slimy, sickly appearance, which we hoped to see closed before another warm season. There was an air of carelessness and indifference about the enforcement of sanitary laws that should not be tolerated another season. The public safety demands strict laws and rigid enforcement.

It is time now to begin to clean up and use disinfectants, before the warmth of spring starts the breeding of disease germs, even in the slightest degree. Let every man be a sanitary officer on his own premises and see to it that the street officer does his duty.

The legislature has adopted the committee report in the Wilson case. This is as it should be and gives a black eye to the dirty tricks of Russell and Butler and their co-conspirators. This democratic legislature is not endorsing any of that fusion rottenness if it knows itself—and she thinks she does.

If the war department had sent Marion Butler as minister plenipotentiary and spouter extraordinary to the Philippine government to argue the question of annexation he would have cowed the insurgents into abject submission and put Aguinaldo in bed with nervous prostration.

Notes of The Prowler

"What is life, anyhow?" asked the Prowler this morning as he lighted his corn cob pipe and shoved his muddy boots into a pile of our latest exchanges. "I was ruminating on that subject this morning when I picked up the Charlotte News—one of your best exchanges—and read of the death of Captain Chadwick, of Charlotte, which occurred in Boston yesterday morning, caused by a bullet in his brain, sent there by a revolver in his own hand.

"He had lived in Charlotte several years and was a universal favorite. He was closely identified with the upbuilding of the city and it is said he was largely instrumental in the establishment there of Elizabeth College. He took great interest in military affairs and was elected captain of the Queen City Guards. He volunteered to fight the battles of this country in the war with Spain. He was a brave man, no doubt; and just why he should kill himself is a mystery to most people, I reckon. A man yet on this side of the meridian of life, a good business man, a man loved by friends and neighbors. It is so strange.

"But I see it intimated that ill health and business reverses had him in merciless grasp—two things which, taken separately, are as much as strong men can bear sometimes. But put both together and the strain is awful. There are men who can brush aside the thought and there are men who can't. Captain Chadwick had recently spent some time in a sanitarium for nervousness or some such disease. But what gets me is this: How can a man thus deliberately lift the veil of the future and step out into the unknown beyond? There is no witness at hand, therefore let judgement be suspended as to Captain Chadwick."

And the Prowler said he believed death by taking laudanum would be easier than by shooting, anyhow.

SHE GOT HIM BACK.

How the Dog's Mistress Retained Her Pet Spaniel.

When Mrs. Marie Nevins Blaine was married to Dr. W. T. Bull, her pet spaniel, Lion, was banished. After the couple had been married a year Mrs. Bull persuaded her husband to let Lion return for a week, promising to keep him in the stable.

Three days of Lion's visit had passed when as Dr. Bull was taking off his overcoat in his office there came a rap at the inner door. It was so faint that at first he did not notice it. Then when it was repeated he said, "Come in." No one came, but the rapping went on. He opened the door, and there stood Lion. He had been knocking the door with a little wooden box he held in his mouth, addressed to Dr. Bull. The doctor took the box, and Lion, too polite to intrude, turned and walked in a dignified manner back up stairs. The doctor opened the box and read the tiny note contained therein, smiled and threw it in the scrapbasket.

The next day Lion knocked and left another note. The third time he came there was a reply for him. The doctor said, "Lion, wait." He took the box, abstracted the note, put one of his own in its place, and handing the box back to the dog gave him a pat and sent him up stairs. Here is a copy of Lion's notes and the reply they finally elicited:

DEAR DOCTOR—I am enjoying my visit to my mistress very much. It was very kind of you to invite me here, and I have tried to behave the best I know how. It will be hard to leave my mistress again. I wish you would like me a little bit. LION.

The letter which Lion carried back to his mistress read:

LION—You are such a respectable, well bred fellow that your visit is extended indefinitely. W. T. B.

MOIST WEATHER.

A Description of a Spell of Humidity on the Wabash.

"Talking about rainy weather," said the westerner, "I remember once out in Indianapolis meeting a farmer who took the most cheerful view of dampness of anybody I ever saw. I asked him if they had had much rain down on the Wabash that spring.

"'Well, it has been a little damp,' he answered. 'The day before I left home I had to hang up 24 of my ducks. They had got so water soaked that they couldn't swim any longer. I planted my corn in two feet of water, and I don't expect over 80 bushels to the acre. My wheat is looking pretty well, but the sturgeon and catfish have damaged it considerably. There was about 15 minutes' sunshine one day, and I thought I would plant my potatoes, so I loaded them on a scow and anchored the scow in three feet of water, when it began to rain again.

"'I wanted to go down on the bottom lands next the Wabash to see if the grass was growing for my hay crop, but my wife said that as we didn't have any diving bell she'd rather I wouldn't. I should feel kind of discouraged with all the rain, but I've spent my odd hours of leisure time—and the even ones, too, on account of staying in out of the wet—building us an ark. If it will only rain another week or two until I get her ready to sail, I'm going to take my family out to Missouri by water for a trip to visit our folks that moved off out there because they didn't know enough to stay in a place where they were comfortable.'"—Boston Transcript.

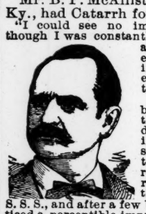
Foul-Smelling Catarrh.

Catarrh is one of the most obstinate diseases, and hence the most difficult to get rid of.

There is but one way to cure it. The disease is in the blood, and all the sprays, washes and inhaling mixtures in the world can have no permanent effect whatever upon it. Swift's Specific cures Catarrh permanently, for it is the only remedy which can reach the disease and force it from the blood

Mr. B. P. McAllister, of Harrodsburg, Ky., had Catarrh for years. He writes: "It could see no improvement whatever, though I was constantly treated with sprays and washes, and different inhaling remedies—in fact, I could feel that each winter I was worse than the year previous.



"Finally it was brought to my notice that Catarrh was a blood disease, and after thinking over the matter, I saw it was unreasonable to expect to be cured by remedies which only reached the surface. I then decided to try S. S. S., and after a few bottles were used, I noticed a perceptible improvement. Continuing the remedy, the disease was forced out of my system, and a complete cure was the result. I advise all who have this dreadful disease to abandon their local treatment, which has never done them any good, and take S. S. S., a remedy that can reach the disease and cure it."

To continue the wrong treatment for Catarrh is to continue to suffer. Swift's Specific is a real blood remedy, and cures obstinate, deep-seated diseases, which other remedies have no effect whatever upon. It promptly reaches Catarrh, and never fails to cure even the most aggravated cases.

S.S.S. For The Blood is Purely Vegetable, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no dangerous minerals.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alterative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

Single Standard

only is possible, whether as as a test of excellence in journalism, or for the measurement of quantities, time or values, and

The Philadelphia Record

after a career of nearly twenty years of uninterrupted growth is justified in claiming that the standard first established by its founders is the one true test of

A Perfect Newspaper

To publish ALL The News promptly and succinctly and in the most readable form, without elisian or pattisan bias; to discuss its significance with frankness, to keep An Open Eye for Public Abuses, to give besides a complete record of current thought, fancies and discoveries in all departments of human activity in its Daily Editions of from 10 to 14 pages, and to provide the whole for its patrons at the nominal price of One Cent—that was from the outset, and will continue to be the aim of "THE RECORD."

The Pioneer

one-cent morning newspaper in the United States, "The Record" still leads where others follow.

Witness the unrivaled average daily circulation, exceeding 180,000 copies, and an average exceeding 145,000 copies for its Sunday editions while imitations of its plan of publication in every important city of the country testify to the truth of the assertion that in the quantity and quality of its contents, and in the price at which it is sold "The Record" has established the standard by which excellence in journalism must be measured.

Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent

New York & Florida Limited Service

JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla. This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

"The New York and Florida Limited" leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a. m., via the pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central & Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2.20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its fame has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal club car for the gentlemen; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening on to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the cuisine rank with the finest New York hotels. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 9:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and Augusta at 9:50. Brunswick and Jeckyl Island are conveniently reached by this train at 12 o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

There are two other fine trains between New York ond Florida via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 4:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States Fast Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York, Jacksonville and Tampa, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jekyl Island. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, connecting with parlor car service to points on F. C. & P. R. R. and F. E. C. Ry. Dining cars are operated on all trains of the Southern Ry. "The Florida Short Line" in connection with the Florida East Coast Railway to Miami offers the most direct, quickest and delightful service to Nassau, Havana and Key West. For full information, reservations, etc., apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A., F. C. & P. R. R., 353 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thweatt, E. P. A., Southern Ry, 271 Broadway, New York.

How Japanese Woo.

Japan is a long way off, and this charming story of how courtships are carried on among the elite of their society comes to us from this faraway land. In certain districts, in houses wherein resides a daughter of marriageable age, an empty flowerpot is encircled by a string and suspended from a window or the veranda. Instead of serenades by moonlight and other delicate ways of making an impression, it is etiquette for the Japanese lover to approach the dwelling of his sweetheart bearing some choice plant in his hand, which he reverently proceeds to plant in the empty vase. This takes place when he is fully aware that mother and daughter are at home.

This act of placing a plant in the flowerpot is equivalent to a formal proposal to the lady of his choice. The lover, having settled the plant to his mind, retires, and the lady is free to act as she pleases. If he is the right man, she takes every care of his gift, waters it and tends it carefully with her own hands, that all may see that the donor is accepted as a suitor. But if he is not the favorite, or if the stern parents object, the poor plant is torn from the vase and the next morning lies limp and withered on the veranda or in the path below.

Mellowing Superstitions.

Mr. Elbert Hubbard, speaking of Meissonier in The Philistine, says that the temperament of the painters' mother "was poetic, religious and her spirit had in it a touch of superstition—which is the case with all really excellent women."

Mr. Hubbard is right. A child cannot be handicapped more severely than by a mathematically precise, "clear headed," well informed, unimaginative mother. There are wretched households in which fairy stories are tabooed as "absurd," in which the "Arabian Nights" is pooh poohed, in which primers of science are forced upon little hands in which there is no Santa Claus, no stork, no werewolf, no goblin.

A superstitious mother sees signs and omens for her children. To find her throwing spilled salt over her shoulder or looking anxiously for the favoring position of the new moon is a more agreeable sight than to discover her in the act of teaching indisputable facts. We entertain a profound pity for men who sneer at old wives' fables. The testimony, the deepest feeling of the centuries, is against the scoffers and with them we do not care to clink glasses or do business.—Boston Journal.

Horseshoes.

In Japan most of the horses are shod with straw. Even the clumsiest of cart horses wear straw shoes, which, in their cases, are tied around the ankle with straw rope and are made of the ordinary rice straw, braided so as to form a sole for the foot about half an inch thick. These soles cost about a halfpenny a pair. In Iceland horses are shod with sheep's horn. In discussing this subject a writer in The Horseshoer's Journal says: In the valley of the Upper Oxus the antlers of the mountain deer are used for the same purpose, the shoes being fastened with horn pins. In the Sudan the horses are shod with socks made of camel's skin. In Australia horseshoes are made of cowhide. A German not long ago invented a horseshoe of paper, prepared by saturating with oil, turpentine and other ingredients. Thin layers of such paper are glued to the hoof till the requisite thickness is attained, and the shoes thus made are durable and impenetrable by moisture.

Landor's Retort at School.

One day in full school Master Landor had an apple of singular size and beauty. He had his Livy in one hand and this apple in the other and read and read and munched and munched till the sound struck the doctor. He espied the delinquent and ordered him to bring that apple to him. He put it on his desk, coram populo, and then, half relenting, said: "There, sir. Now, if you want that again you had better go and sit down and make me a short line on the occasion." "Oh, I can do that and stand here," says Master Landor. "Do it then." The boy thought a moment, and soon obliged him with a pentameter, "Esuriens doctor dulcia poma rapit."

"Hum!" says Dr. James. "And pray, sir, what do you mean by e-su-riens doctor?" "The gormandizing doctor." "Take it, sir. You are too hard for me, you are too hard for me," said the doctor, delighted with his pupil. "Rouse's History of Rugby School."

Chinese Back Scratcher.

No Chinese home is without a back scratcher, while many there be in otherwise happy American households who do not know its joys. Therefore are they compelled to hitch around on chairs to dislodge the itch.

The oriental does better. He shoves down his back an instrument which has a carved bone or ivory hand with sharp claws. This is mounted on a flexible handle of cane or bone, and with a few pushes the annoyance ceases. —Hongkong Correspondence.

For Bed and Board.

It is said that when John Jacob Astor was once congratulated for his wealth he replied by pointing to the bonds and maps of property, at the same time inquiring, "Would you like to manage these matters for your bed and board?"

The man demurred.

"Sir," continued the rich man, "it is all that I can get."

Pretty Girls, These!

"The Houtzdale (Penn.) Journal says: "The [illegible] of the Houtzdale girls are slender and delicately tinted, their i i i are like , and they are without — in this or any other §. Their frowns are like †††, and their 123450 excite !!! of pleasure and a desire to m—— them. Read this ¶ closely, and do not ? its veracity."

NORTH CAROLINA,
GUILFORD COUNTY.

By virtue of the powers conferred upon me in a certain order made by the Superior Court of Guilford county in a cause therein pending, entitled Mrs Nellie Albright, et al., ex parte, I will, as commissioner, sell at the court house door in Greensboro on the first Monday in March, (it being the sixth day) to the highest bidder at public auction, for cash, the following described land and premises, to-wit:

A house and lot on Cedar street, in the city of Greensboro and fronting on said street 63½ feet and running back about 300 feet and adjoining the lands of T. M. Pickard on the north, Bob Aiken on the south, J. W. Richardson on the west, and others, containing one-half of one acre, more or less. Upon which is situated a nice five room cottage, good well and a barn. It being the home place of Joe Albright, deceased.

This 28th day of January, 1899.

A. L. BROOKS, Commissioner.

"The Best Laid Plans."

"When I was a young fellow, I was a dreamer," said a benevolent citizen. "I thought that my greatest pleasure would be to give money to the poor and live a life of simple, unworldly devotion and gentleness. That was when I was about 20.

"At 25 I came into some money rather unexpectedly. The first thing I did was to give a dinner. I got tipsy—the first time in my life. I had a fight with a waiter and nearly punched his eye out. I was arrested and had to be bailed out by my lawyer. The waiter sued me for damages, and I was so angry with him and myself and the downfall of my great ideals that I refused to compromise as my lawyer advised. The waiter lost most of his savings in fees and expenses, and his family came wailing to ask me to pay his doctor's bills and help him get a position and they would drop the suit.

"I came to my senses and did more than that for them. My old ideas, modified and modernized, took hold of me again, and while I am a hard headed business man today most of my friends are poor people. But my first use of money shows how flimsy the pedestals of most ideals are and how foolish it is to say what we would do if we could."
—New York Commercial Advertiser.

He Told the Lawyer.

Lawyer S. is well known for his uncomely habits. He cuts his hair about four times a year and the rest of the time looks decidedly ragged about the ears. He was making a witness describe a barn which figured in his last case.

"How long had the barn been built?"

"Oh, I don't know. About a year mebby. About nine months p'r'aps."

"But just how long? Tell the jury how long it had been built."

"Well, I don't know exactly. Quite a while."

"Now, Mr. B., you pass for an intelligent farmer, and yet you can't tell me how old this barn is, and you have lived on the next farm for ten years. Can you tell me how old your own barn is? Come now, tell us how old your own house is, if you think you know."

Quick as lightning the old farmer replied:

"You want to know how old my house is, do ye? Well, it's just about as old as you be and needs the roof seeing to about as bad."

In the roar that followed the witness stepped down, and Lawyer S. didn't call him back.—London Globe.

"'Ark, the 'Erald Angels Sing."

Two turns brought me from the crowded highway along which cab and omnibus were speeding toward London's center of attraction to the quiet street in which fire and food awaited me. As I made the second turn I saw, through the murk of a mid-December evening, three figures pressed close against the area railings—surely my own area railings. And through the murk came in a treble bawl the sound of "Peace on earth, good 'ill ter men."

The area door opened with a clatter.

"Now, then, be off with yer! I'd smack yer 'eds if I could get near yer. Makin that noise! Now, then!"

"Garn! Want yer airy window broke?" said the biggest of the trio, pulling himself up by the railings and resting his chin between the spikes.

As I entered at the gate they scurried away in fear and trembling, and cook, distracted, slammed the area door. A minute later a want of discord came down the street:

"'Ark, the 'erald angels sing."

Where Coleridge Was Wanting.

Coleridge has a lamentable want of voluntary power. If he is excited by a remark in company he will pour forth in an evening, without apparent effort, what would furnish matter for a hundred essays. But the moment that he is to write not from present impulse but from preordained deliberation his powers fail him, and I believe that there are times when he could not pen the commonest notes. He is one of those minds who, except in inspired moods, can do nothing, and his inspirations are all oral and not scriptural. And when he is inspired he surpasses, in my opinion, all that could be thought or imagined of a human being.—"Charles Lamb and the Lloyds," by E. V. Lucas.

The Bridge of Lions.

The largest bridge in existence is not, as one would imagine, the work of some famous English or French engineer. This bridge, comparatively little known, was constructed long ago, in China, in the reign of the Emperor Keing Long.

It is situated near to Sangang and the Yellow sea, and measures not less than eight miles and a half.

The Bridge of Lions, as it is called, is supported by 800 immense arches and its foundation is 21 meters under water. On each pile of this wonderful bridge is a marble statue of a lion, three times larger than life size. The coup d'œil of these 800 enormous lions, each one supporting an arch, is stupendous in its magnificance.

A New Commodity.

"John has 5 oranges, James gave him 11, and he gives Peter 7; how many has he left?"

Before this problem the class recoiled.

"Please, sir," said a young lad, "we always does our sums in apples."—London Tit-Bits.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger trom La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. E. Holton.

The city of Los Angeles, Cal., has asked President McKinley to visit that city during the coming summer.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe,

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Mo., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vender. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by C. E. Holton.

Infernal machines are being employed by rival factions in the Chinese quarter of San Francisco, Cal.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or is "just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles, Instst vigorously on having it if "something else" is offered you. Howard Gardner.

The Story of the Golden Fish.

We doubt not there are but few children who have not read the fairy tale of The Golden Fish.

It starts off like this:

Once upon a time there was a poor man who was noted and loved for his honesty and kind disposition. He was a hard working man, but with all his efforts he could not succeed in accumulating much of this world's goods.

One day he took it into his head to go fishing, so he went out and dug his bait, got some old fishing tackle and started for the creek, about a mile away.

He had not been fishing longwhen he got a good bite and pulled out a beautiful Gold-fish.

Now as a rule fish are not given to talking, but while the man was gazing at this one in open eyed wonder the fish did speak, and it said; "Mr. Man, if you will throw me back into the water, that I may live, I will make you comfortable for the balance of your life."

Now if there was anything this man desired it was comfort, so he tossed the golden fish back into the water, went home, and found everything in splendor—his wife dressed in silks—and they were both happy the balance of their lives—with one exception: They could not buy a suit of Mrs. Hopkins' make of clothes for their boy.

We can furnish yon a medium weight at closing-out prices.

"POPULAR" is the name of a line of ladies' oxfords made by the Hamilton-Brown Shoe Co., of St. Louis, one of the largest shoe houses in the world, doing a business of five to six million dollars annually. This line is rightly named the "popular," as it is beyond doubt one of the best and most popular lines of ladies' low shoes in the country. Scores of ladies here in Greensboro have worn this make for the last three or four years and positively won't buy any other kind when they can get the "popular." One reason why these oxfords are "popular" is because th y fit and "feel good" the first time they are worn. For a neat, dressy shoe that will do for both street and home wear we recommend the new Coin toe, while if you want only solid comfort regardless of appearance we can give you the "popular" in regular wide bottom, low heeled common sense style.

Negro Prisoner Escapes.

Alfred Graves, a negro sentenced at the present term of court to six months on the county roads for retailing, escaped from the officers at the Southern depot this morning and is still at large. Graves, with nine other prisoners, had been taken to the depot and were waiting for the southbound local on which they were going to High Point, near which place they were to work. Superintendent Burgwyn stepped out to buy the tickets, leaving the prisoners in charge of a deputy and while he was gone Graves made his escape. The other prisoners were securely chained together.

Directors Meet.

The board of directors of the Bank of Guilford met at the bank yesterday afternoon to transact some business matters of more or less importance. Among other things they decided to ask Judge Bryan for orders to bring suit to annul the transaction by which a judgment for $15,000 against the North State Improvement company was transferred to the late D. F. Caldwell for stock in the bank.

Receiver Cox this morning appeared before Judge Bryan and the latter issued the order asked for.

MRS. HOUSEKEEPER:

Please permit us to ask you a very pointed question: Have you a Universal Food Chopper? By this we do not mean a meat grinder, but a Chopper, which takes the place of chopping bowl and beater.

It chops meat, of course, but it does more. You can chop ham, cocoanut, or bread instead of grating it. You can—but we can't tell it all here. Our booklet gives full information Free. You will have use for it every day in the year. It is very simple and very cheap. Please call and let us show it to you. Yours truly,
